EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which gov-ern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa. Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keepin ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly non-lished frame."—See Article in the Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. SATURDAY, JUNE 8. Supreme Court-In Probate.

May 3d, 1878. Before Mr. Justice Judd, at Chambers.-Estate of John Kawelau, a person absent from the Kingdom. Petition of Beniamina to be appointed Trustee of the property of John Kawelau. Kamaele, (w.) wife of Kaila, produced a Power of Attorney purporting to be from John Kawelau to John Namaielua, executed in San Francisco. Whereupon the Court asked Kaila to take charge of the property until John Namaielua arrives, and in the mean time to place all he receives in the bank and refund Beniamina his actual disbursements.

Before Chief Justice Harris.—Proof of Will of William H. Wright, of Koloa, Kauai, deceased. Petition of John N. Wright, of Koloa, for Probate of the Will of the above decedent, and for Letters Testamentary to him as Executor named in the Will. The Court, after hearing the evidence produced, admitted the Will to Probate, and ordered Letters Testamentary as also Letters of Guardian-ship to be issued to John N. Wright, the petitioner, without bonds as provided in the Will that notice to creditors be advertised for four weeks in the English language, and an Inventory to be filed in thirty days. The Court allows $50 a month to be paid to the widow during the sixty days from the death of decedent as provided by

Before Mr. Justice McCully by request of Mr. Justice Judd, absent on Circuit.—Estates of Ehu (k.) and Kamoa. (k.) deceased. Petition of Heleao (k.) for Letters of Administration of the above estates. After hearing the evidence, the Court said that it appeared that the real object of this proceeding was to get possession of the land of Ehu, which is held by a person who contests the petitioner's right as heir, and recommends them to discontinue these proceedings and bring an action of ejectment, to which the petitioner assented and the case was withdrawn Before Chief Justice Harris.-Guardianship of Aboil V. Kelk, a minor. Petition of Alatau T Atkinson, Guardian of said minor, for approval of his accounts as such, and for his discharge. The Court examined and approved the accounts showing a balance due the minor of $118.121, and ordered that upon the minor's filing a re cerpt for that amount that the Guardian should be discharged, and the receipt baving been filed on the 22d of May, 1878, the Guardian was discharged accordingly. CIVIL SUITS.

May 29th, 1878. D. Kalakaua, et al., vs. W. C. Parke, Administrator of the Estate of C. Kanaina, deceased, et al. The appeal of W. S. Pa hukula, one of the claimants of this estate, was this day decided against him by the full Court. W. H. Stone vs. Alex. Hutchinson,-Malicious mischief. The verdict rendered in this case by the jury was for $1,800, which was excepted to by the defendant's counsel as excessive; and the exceptions being argued before the full Court judgment was on the 28th of May instant, rendered for the defendant.

FOREIGN NEWS.

A St. Petersburg special to the New York Herald of May 14th says it is believed in court circles that Count Schouvaloff returned from London for the purpose of seeking categorical instructions as to the precise limits of Russia's concessions. Uneasiness

Batoum is still held by the Turks. The Russians are closing in its rear, and are disarming the hostile population. A Vienna correspondent telegraphs to London, May 13, to the effect that although nothing is known about Count Schouvaloff's mission, a reaction against the hopeful tendency has set in. If Russia's pacific disposition has actually existed it exists still, but whether it will last is a question for the future to solve. The struggle in St. Petersburg will be a hard one, and the issue doubtful. By order of General Todleben the Servians occupied Sofia, which the Russians had evacuated.

In spite of peaceful rumors the massing of Austrian troops near the Danube and Save continues actively. It is stated from London, May 12, that the First Army Corps is ordered to be in readiness to embark May 28. Count Zichy, the Austrian Ambassador, has represented to the Porte that the occupation of Bosnia would only be temporary.

Insurgents have marched, May 13, to the railway near Philipopolis. Another body is entrenched near Tatar Bazardjik. Rassim Pasha has joined the insurgents with 4,000 men. A Vienna letter published in the North German German contains the following: Austrian interests dictate the establishment of an army in Eastern Gallicia, ahother in Transylvania, a third in Banat, FROM LIVERPOOL! an army corps in South Dalmatia, the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and all Turkish territory between the Adriatic and Ægean Seas. It is also considered desirable to conclude alliances, offensive and defensive, with Roumania, Servia and Montenegro, and those other parts of Turkey which are detaching themselves from the Ottoman Government, for the purpose of organizing them with Austro-

Hungary into a confederation of States on the model of Germany. Berlin bankers have, it is said, made Russia a preliminary advance of 50,000,000 roubles. It is formally denied that France is negotiating with the Bay of Tunis for the cession of that Regency to Algeria. The N. Y. Herald's Boston special says the eastern agent of the Central Pacific Railroad has made arrangements with Count Grippenberg, of the Cimbria for the transfer of the Russian officers and sailors to the Pacific Coast.

It is reported by way of Buffalo, that the military were called out early on the morning of May 13, at Fort Erie, Canada, in anticipation of a Fenian raid at St. Catherine's. Four companies of infantry and a battery are ordered to be in readiness to march at a moment's notice. A heavy snow storm and frost cooled off the folks in Iowa, on Saturday night May 11. The grapes are nearly all killed, and the cherry crop is much injured. There was quite an exciting debate in the House of Representatives May 13, on the Maryland Legislative Preamble and Resolution asking for an investigation into alleged frauds connected with the Presidential election of 1876 in the States of Louisiana and Florida. The resolution embodies what has been known as the Blair Manifesto, and was opposed by the Republican side of the House nuless an amendment was accepted extending the inquiry to other States in which it was alleged that Democratic frauds had affected the State vote. A large number of the Democrats are not in very good humor, for the proceedings of the day do not please them. They think a grave blunder has been made in making the Blair Manifesto a pretext for inquiry. The whole move is evidently intended as an investigation into the title of President Hayes as Chief Magistrate of the Republic. We do not believe the nation will submit to any disturbance of the present statu quo. All the most vital interests of the country forbid it. These factious proceedings are not calculated to increase Mr. Tilden's chance of realizing any ambitious dreams he may cherish in the future. The Democratic purty will select some other standard | These together with the well known bearer for the campaign of 1880.

One of the dangers of home life is this habit of disrespect-that which is bred by familiarity. People who are all beauty and sunshine for a crowd of strangers, for whom they have not the faintest affection, are all ugliness and gloom for their own, by whose love they live. The pleasant little prettiness of dress and personal adornment, which mark the desire to please, is put on only for the admiration of those whose admiration goes for nothing, while the house companions are treated only to the ragged gowns and threadbare coat, the tousled hair and stubby beard, which, if marking the ease and comfort of the sans facon at home, mark also the indifference and disrespect that do so much damage to the sweetness and delicacy of daily life. And what is true of the dress is still truer of the manners and tempers of home, in both of which we often find too that want of respect which seems to run side by side with affection in the custom of familiarity. It is a regretable habit under any of its conditions, but never more so than when it invades the home and endangers still more that which is already too much endangered by other things. Parents and other bringers-up do not pay enough attention to the young. They allow habits of disrespect to be formed-rude, rough, insolent and impatient, and salve over the sore with the stereotyped excuse, "They mean nothing by it," which if we look at it aright, is worse than no excuse at all; for if they really do mean nothing by it, and their dis-respect is not what it seems to be, the result of strong anger, uncontrolable temper, but is merely a habit, then it ought to be conquered without loss of time, being merely a manner that burts all parties alike.
